IL RISTORANTE - LUCA FANTIN

Enchantingly illuminated by candles, which reflect in the adjacent pools, Il Ristorante - Luca Fantin offers a true fine dining experience signed by the renowned Italian chef. It seats 24 diners and operates from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Opened in 2017, Il Ristorante – Luca Fantin is curated by acclaimed Italian chef Luca Fantin, whose talents lie in creatively combining classical Italian cuisine with local flavors and ingredients, always respecting seasonality and quality of products. While Executive Chef Fantin presides over the flagship Il Ristorante - Luca Fantin in Tokyo's Bulgari Ginza Tower, resident Head Chef Alessandro Mazzali nurtures his vision by executing all the recipes with great talent, rare mastery and sophisticated cooking techniques.

Guests can choose to accompany the 'degustazione' menu with a wine pairing option proposed by the sommelier or select a bottle from the expertly curated award winning wine list counting more than 400 labels—predominantly from Italy—and notable Champagnes.

Children under 5 years old are not admitted.

THE BVLGARI BAR

One-hundred-sixty metres above the Indian Ocean's mesmerizing expanse, beneath a traditional Balinese alang-alang thatched roof, and floating amid serene pools, Bvlgari Bar is the prized perch from which to savor light meals, leisure bites, and signature Bvlgari cocktails throughout the day and night. The Bar's mixologists create every type of cocktail, from classics 'with a twist' including Oak-Aged Negronis and Aperol Spritzes to 'local' infusions featuring Balinese ingredients such as arak and rosella.

Every day at sunset, from 6 - 7 p.m., guests are invited to enjoy an Italian aperitivo, a selection of warm and cold bites to pair with the chosen drinks, while watching the sun plunge in the Ocean.
